History

JVS (Jewish Vocational Service) transforms lives by helping people build skills and find work. JVS was founded in 1973 to aid recent Jewish college graduates who were having trouble finding work. In the 1980s and 1990s, we expanded to meet the needs of both the huge influx of refugees from the former Soviet Union and the workers who had been displaced during turbulent economic times.

Today, JVS is the Bay Area’s leading job training agency with a mission to transform lives by helping people build in-demand skills and find work. We work closely with Bay Area employers to develop programs that teach skills that our clients need and employers demand. Our locally and nationally recognized programs connect job seekers to training opportunities in healthcare, financial services, administration, and technology, with more to come. We are a nonprofit, non-sectarian organization serving clients from all walks of life and at a variety of experience levels. JVS is committed to treating clients with dignity and fairness and appreciates the diversity and uniqueness of each employee, client, volunteer, and community partner.

The JVS Team is a group of talented and experienced professionals who receive ongoing training to ensure that they remain experts in their field and continuously build strategies to help clients meet their goals. JVS is a Healthcare Sector Access Point and a Dislocated Worker Access Point for San Francisco and receives many referrals from the Comprehensive and Neighborhood Access Points for training and employment counseling services.

Basic Admission Standards

Assigned staff are responsible for determining individual eligibility for JVS services. The following criteria determine eligibility to participate in the Job Search Accelerator or in Skills to Work Programs from JVS:

- Adults, ages 18 and older, who require assistance with career counseling, job training, placement and/or job retention services to achieve and retain gainful employment.
- Resident within the San Francisco Bay Area.
- Free from alcohol or other substance abuse. An individual with a current substance abuse problem may be initially ineligible and may be referred to treatment services.
- If taking prescribed medication, the client must be independent in medication management or receiving assistance from another service provider. JVS staff do not assist with medication management.
- The client must be eligible for employment in accordance with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, which states employers should only hire American citizens and aliens who are authorized to work in the United States.
- Depending on the program, client may need to be eligible for subsidized services from various agencies, such as: The California Employment Development Department (EDD), the California Department of Rehabilitation (DOR), Mayor's Office of Economic and Workforce Development (OEWD), Human Services Agency (HSA), and the Department of Labor (DOL).
- The client must be motivated to achieve and retain employment and willingness to work with JVS staff.

Waiting Period

There is no waiting list for the Job Search Accelerator program, and clients are accepted on a first-come, first served basis. However, priority goes to Veterans and/or those who are eligible for and are enrolling in the subsidized services listed above.

Other JVS job search and placement assistance services may have a waiting list. When space becomes available, clients are enrolled in services based on the date of intake or date of completed application. If you are placed on a waiting list, the Program Coordinator of the services you are requesting will keep you regularly informed of your status on the waiting list and will also provide you with an estimated time of enrollment.

JVS Point Person / Creating Your Job Search Plan

Your JVS point person will assist you in ensuring that you are linked to all the services (including the services noted on pages 3-4) and referrals you think you need to help you reach your goals.

Together with your JVS point person, you will create your own job search plan that prioritizes your needs, interests, and strengths. This plan will detail your job search goals and the steps and timeline necessary to reach these goals.

In addition to helping you assess your skills sets, goals, and work environment preferences, we will support you in obtaining referrals for any services you think you may need. This includes referrals to obtaining and retaining public assistance you may be eligible for.

There are numerous community agencies in the San Francisco Bay Area, and we are committed to linking you to the services that best meet your needs. When necessary, and with your permission, we will advocate on your behalf to secure the most appropriate services. We also believe that you should be given the opportunity to build your own advocacy skills and we will provide you with support in building these skills by coaching you on advocacy strategies and by referring you to self-advocacy organizations in the community.

Keeping Appointments

We expect you to be punctual for all your scheduled appointments and/or classes and request that you call or email as soon as possible if you cannot make it and/or need to reschedule.

When you arrive at JVS for your appointment, please ask the receptionist at the front desk to contact the JVS staff member you are scheduled to meet with. Do not attempt to find that person directly.

Discontinuing Services

While we know that most clients who enroll in JVS services intend to complete them, circumstances may require a person to leave services. If you feel that you will not be able to stay for the time determined in your job search plan, please schedule a meeting to discuss your decision with your JVS point person.

Work Protocol

Our Work Protocol ensures that JVS remains a professional business office that is a productive and safe environment for both clients and staff. This information is intended to provide an overview of expected behavior at JVS or JVS sponsored events. It also serves as a useful resource that helps all clients and staff feel productive and safe.

We expect that JVS clients and JVS team members adhere to the following behaviors:

1. Attendance: Be on time for scheduled appointments and/or classes. Clients should notify staff as soon as possible if an emergency will affect attendance.

7. Attire/Grooming: Wear attire and display grooming that encourages learning, and that promotes safety, health, and acceptable standards of social conduct in the workplace.
8. Scent Sensitivity: Limit the use of scented products, including perfumes. Exposure to scented products can trigger serious health reactions in individuals with asthma, allergies, migraines, or chemical sensitivities.

14. Weapons/Explosives/Fireworks: Do not possess, distribute, handle, or use a weapon or any object, including explosives and fireworks.

Suspension and Dismissal Policy

Violation of any part of the JVS Work Protocol may result in suspension and/or dismissal from services.

If you fail to follow JVS's Work Protocol, a JVS Workforce Specialist will schedule a meeting to review your behavior or lack of participation. Issues that cannot be resolved at this level may be referred to the appropriate JVS team member. If the behavior continues, a three-way meeting will be scheduled between you, the Workforce Specialist and the Program Manager. Depending on the severity of the offense, the Chief Program Officer and/or their designees may determine that a suspension or dismissal from services is in order. While this is a suggested guideline to provide feedback, we reserve the right to terminate services at any time for any reason.

In the case of suspensions or dismissal from services, you must meet with the Chief Program Officer and/or their designee to determine if reinstatement of JVS services is appropriate.

If you disagree with any disciplinary action, you may file a grievance with the Chief Program Officer as noted on page 12.

Facilities Policy

Accessibility

JVS maintains offices, classrooms and public spaces that are accessible to persons with disabilities. Persons with walkers or wheelchairs can receive services in most of our locations. Persons with hearing or visual needs can also receive accommodations if we know in advance of your needs. When registering for a service, you will be given the opportunity to request an accommodation to meet your needs. Additionally, this handbook and any of our workshop material are available in large print upon request.

Service Animals

Service animals are welcome at JVS's facilities. You will be asked to confirm that your animal is a service animal.

We ask that everyone with a service animal follow these guidelines:

- Bring your service animal on a leash or in a container.
- Keep birds, reptiles, amphibians, and rodents in an enclosed carrier/container.
- Keep your animal at your feet, or on your lap. Your service animal may not sit on JVS furniture.
- Ensure that your service animal is not aggressive toward people or other animals.

While service animals are welcome at JVS, you are responsible for the care and supervision, including any damage or soiling caused by your service animal.

Eating and Drinking

There is access to drinking water in the hallway between Classrooms 2 and 3. We ask that you use care when eating or drinking in Classrooms and Meeting Rooms. Eating and drinking are prohibited when using a JVS laptop.

Restrooms

The restrooms are located on either side of the elevators. The Women's Restroom is on the same side as JVS's main lobby. The Men's Restroom is located on the other side of the elevators.

JVS programs serve diverse clients, including the transgender community. For many transgender people, finding a safe bathroom is a daily struggle. Transgender people are frequently harassed and assaulted in bathrooms, and many feel that public bathrooms are unsafe. For this reason, transgender people will often avoid public bathrooms and have health problems as a result. Everyone has the basic human right to go to the bathroom. JVS wants to ensure that transgender people have a safe and positive experience using the restrooms at JVS.

JVS Restroom Policy

All patrons of JVS are free to use the restroom that corresponds to their gender identity. While in the restroom, we ask all patrons of JVS to respect the right of others to use the bathroom of their choice based on their gender identity.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding this policy, please contact the Chief Program Officer, at 415- 782-6269 or via e-mail at adurfee@jvs.org, or the Director of Client Services at 415-782-6235 or via email at druggles@jvs.org.

For more information, please read the publication "Peeing in Peace" produced by The Transgender Law Center which you can find on the Transgender Law Center's website at <http://transgenderlawcenter.org/issues/public-accomodations/peeing-in-peace>

Thank you for your attention to this matter. We appreciate everyone's cooperation in making JVS a safe and supportive environment for everyone.

Health and Safety Protocol

Safety Drills

JVS is serious about safety. Periodically, we conduct safety drills to make sure our staff and our clients know how to react and stay safe in an emergency. Each year we practice fire drills, earthquake drills, utility failures, bomb threats, hostage situation drills, and medical emergencies. If a drill takes place while you are at JVS, please follow the directions of the JVS staff. The drills are important, and we want you to take them seriously.

Safety and First Aid Training

Safety training is mandatory for JVS staff members, and many members are certified in First Aid and CPR. They can assist you if you have an accident or incident that may need medical attention. Please follow the staff person's instructions, and above all, stay calm in an emergency. JVS staff will get the help you need.

Bringing Children to JVS

Children should not be brought to JVS in place of child care. Upon occasion, extenuating circumstances may require that you bring a child or children with you to a meeting or class. Upon such occasions, and with the advance permission of JVS management, children may be brought to JVS.

JVS values family life and welcomes children and other family members to attend special events such as graduations and celebrations. Children must remain under your direct supervision as the parent/guardian.

All visitors, including children, are required to abide by our Work Protocol at all times.

Code of Ethics

JVS's Code of Ethics serves as our expectation for the treatment of persons served and states that all staff, board members, and volunteers will:

- Protect and promote the interests and informed choices of clients by making it possible to develop their potential.
- Strive to provide the highest level of quality services.
- Treat all clients with respect and dignity and respect their legal rights.
- Model professionalism and work ethic.
- Maintain professional boundaries with the persons served.
- Avoid any conflict of interest in service delivery.

Details for how these principles are implemented are detailed throughout this handbook. If you would like to see the complete Code of Ethics, please call 415-782-6269 or e-mail adurfee@jvs.org.

Conflicts of Interest

JVS staff are trained to protect your interests to the greatest extent possible and to avoid conflicts of interest. If you have any questions or concerns about potential conflicts of interest, please do not hesitate to contact the Chief Program Officer at 415-782-6269 or via e-mail at adurfee@jvs.org.

Input Policy

At JVS, clients shape the services and programs offered and one way we do this is through your input. You may be asked by staff to participate in interviews to find out your opinions about our services, and you will also be asked to complete Client Satisfaction Surveys at intervals during your participation in JVS services. We hope to get your honest thoughts and opinions so that we can include them as we plan for the future and improve our services and programs.

Your feedback during interviews or surveys is completely anonymous and will be used for program planning purposes only.

You can also speak to the Chief Program Officer at any time if you would like to discuss your experiences with our services.

Equal Opportunity Is the Law

It is against the law for JVS, as a recipient of Federal Financial assistance, to discriminate on the following bases:

- Against any individual in the United States, on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, political affiliation or belief; and
- Against any beneficiary of programs financially assisted under Title 1 of the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (WIA), on the basis of the beneficiary's citizenship/ status as a lawfully admitted immigrant authorized to work in the United States, or his or her participation in any WIA Title 1- financially assisted program or activity.

The recipient must not discriminate in any of the following areas:

- Deciding who will be admitted, or have access, to any WIA Title 1-financially assisted program or activity;
- Providing opportunities in, or treating any person with regard to, such a program or activity; or
- Making employment decisions in the administration of, or in connection with, such a program or activity.

What to Do If You Believed You Have Experienced Discrimination:

If you think that you have been subjected to discrimination under a WIA Title 1-financially assisted program or activity, you may file a complaint within 180 days from the date of the alleged violation with either:

The recipient's Equal Opportunity Officer OR
Director of Client Services
Jewish Vocational Service
225 Bush Street, Suite 400
San Francisco, CA 94104

Director of the Civil Rights Center
U.S. Department of Labor
Room N-4123
200 Constitution Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20210.

If you file your complaint with the recipient, you must wait either until the recipient issues a written Notice of Final Action or until 90 days have passed (whichever is sooner), before filing with the Civil Rights Center (see address above).

If the recipient does not give you a written Notice of Final Action within 90 days of the day on which you filed your complaint, you do not have to wait for the recipient to issue that Notice before filing a complaint with CRC. However, you must file your CRC complaint within 30 days of the 90-day deadline (in other words, within 120 days after the day on which you filed your complaint with the recipient).

If the recipient does give you a written Notice of Final Action on your complaint, but you are dissatisfied with the decision or resolution, you may file a complaint with CRC. You must file your complaint within 30 days of the date on which you received the Notice of Final Action.

Grievance Procedure

We expect any problem or misunderstanding can be effectively resolved in a timely manner by discussing it with the staff person you are working with. It is your responsibility to immediately inform your instructor, JVS Point Person, or another staff person if you are having a problem or need to share a concern.

In the event that you and the staff person cannot agree on a solution to a specific problem or issue, you should request to meet with the staff person's immediate supervisor. Following your request, the immediate supervisor will contact you within 10 working days to schedule a meeting. As a client, you may request the attendance of another person at the meeting, such as a case manager, Department of Rehabilitation counselor, or an advocate of your choice.

If no satisfactory solution is reached between you and the supervisor, please direct your grievance to the Chief Program Officer. You have up to one year to file a formal grievance from the date a violation took place. Within 30-days of the submission of your formal complaint, JVS will schedule a meeting on the matter, and you will receive 10-days advanced written notice of the meeting date and time.

The grievance should be documented in writing and addressed to:

Chief Program Officer
Jewish Vocational Service
225 Bush Street, Suite 400
San Francisco, CA 94104

Following the meeting, the Chief Program Officer or their designee will respond with a written decision to your grievance within 60-days of the original submission of your formal complaint.

If no satisfactory solution is reached between you and JVS, you may have the opportunity to direct your grievance to a third party. JVS staff will assist you in identifying the appropriate person to whom your grievance should be directed.

If at any time you feel your actions and/or feedback have resulted in retaliatory actions or increased barriers to service, please notify the Chief Program Officer immediately in writing.
