History

JVS (Jewish Vocational Service) transforms lives by helping people build skills and find work. JVS was founded in 1973 to aid recent Jewish college graduates who were having trouble finding work. In the 1980s and 1990s, we expanded to meet the needs of both the huge influx of refugees from the former Soviet Union and the workers who had been displaced during turbulent economic times.

Today, JVS is the Bay Area's leading job training agency with a mission to transform lives by helping people build in-demand skills and find work. We work closely with Bay Area employers to develop programs that teach skills that our clients need and employers' demand. Our locally and nationally recognized programs connect job seekers to training opportunities in healthcare, utilities, and technology, with more to come. We are a nonprofit, non-sectarian organization serving clients from all walks of life and at a variety of experience levels. JVS is committed to treating clients with dignity and fairness and appreciates the diversity and uniqueness of each employee, client, volunteer, and community partner.

The JVS Team is a group of talented and experienced professionals who receive ongoing training to ensure that they remain experts in their field and continuously build strategies to help clients meet their goals. JVS is a Healthcare Sector Access Point and a Dislocated Worker Access Point for San Francisco and receives many referrals from the Comprehensive and Neighborhood Access Points for training and employment counseling services.

JVS's free services are made possible by the generous support of Bay Area businesses, foundations, government, and individuals who have invested in JVS's programs. For over 45 years and through five recessions, JVS has adapted to a changing economy and transformed thousands of lives in our Bay Area community. We will continue to support job seekers during this unprecedented crisis. You are not in this alone.

Skills Training Programs

These programs are our "secret sauce" and combine industry-specific training, job search support, and may also include paid work experience. Most of these programs require a full-time commitment to your job search and range from 8-weeks to several months. You can find detailed information about these programs on our website at <https://www.jvs.org/skills-training/>.

Technology: JVS is partnering with some of the best technology trainers in the Bay Area to prepare qualified individuals for careers in Salesforce Administration, Accounting through QuickBooks certification, IT Help Desk, Data Analyst, and more to come.

Healthcare: JVS has a 20+ year track record of working with the Bay Area's leading healthcare providers, including UCSF, Kaiser Permanente, CPMC, San Francisco General Hospital and more. Our programs train people for roles as medical administrative assistants, medical assistants, dental assistants, and more. We also support healthcare workers who have been out of the workforce and need help re-entering.

Utilities: JVS increases the number of highly qualified candidates for mission-critical positions in skilled trades occupations, while promoting economic equity across the Bay Area and the Inland Empire. Utilities develops a diverse talent pipeline through apprenticeship, pre-apprenticeship, internship and career awareness opportunities.

Job Search Accelerator (JSA)

Is your job search puttering along or moving fast, fueled with positive energy and tried-and-true techniques? Do you have all the technical skills you need to get the job that you want? JVS's Job Search Accelerator will set you on a track to find and keep a good paying, living wage job. This program lasts for 2 weeks.

Basic Admission Standards

Assigned staff are responsible for determining individual eligibility for JVS services. The following criteria determine eligibility to participate in the Job Search Accelerator or in Skills Training Programs from JVS:

- Adults, ages 18 and older, who require assistance with career counseling, job training, placement and/or job retention services to achieve and retain gainful employment.
- The client must be motivated to achieve and retain employment and willingness to work with JVS staff.
- Bay Area resident.
- Free from alcohol or other substance misuse. An individual with a current substance abuse problem may be initially ineligible and may be referred to treatment services.

- If taking prescribed medication, the client must be independent in medication management or receiving assistance from another service provider. JVS staff do not assist with medication management.
- The client must be eligible for employment in accordance with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, which states employers should only hire American citizens and those who are authorized to work in the United States.
- Depending on the program, client may need to be eligible for subsidized services from various agencies.

Waiting Period

There is no waiting list for the Job Search Accelerator program, and clients are accepted on a first-come, first served basis. However, priority goes to veterans and/or those who are eligible for and are enrolling in the subsidized services listed above.

Other JVS job search and placement assistance services may have a waiting list. When space becomes available, clients are enrolled in services based on the date of completed application. If you are placed on a waiting list, the JVS Point Person of the services you are requesting will keep you regularly informed of your status on the waiting list and will also provide you with an estimated time of enrollment.

JVS Point Person / Creating Your Job Search Plan

Your JVS Point Person will assist you in ensuring that you are linked to all the services and referrals you think you need to help you reach your goals.

Together with your JVS Point Person, you will create your own job search plan that prioritizes your needs, interests, and strengths. This plan will detail your job search goals and the steps and timeline necessary to reach these goals.

In addition to helping you assess your skills sets, goals, and work environment preferences, we will support you in obtaining referrals for any services you think you may need. This includes referrals to obtaining and retaining public assistance you may be eligible for.

There are numerous community agencies in the San Francisco Bay Area, and we are committed to linking you to the services that best meet your needs. When necessary, and with your permission, we will advocate on your behalf to secure the most appropriate services. We also believe that you should be given the opportunity to build your own advocacy skills and we will provide you with support in building these skills by coaching you on advocacy strategies and by referring you to self-advocacy organizations in the community.

Keeping Appointments

We expect you to be punctual for all your scheduled appointments and/or classes and request that you call or email as soon as possible if you cannot make it and/or need to reschedule.

Discontinuing Services

While we know that most clients who enroll in JVS services intend to complete them, circumstances may require a person to leave services. If you feel that you will not be able to stay for the time determined in your job search plan, please schedule a meeting to discuss your decision with your JVS point person. You will likely be asked to put your decision in a form of writing, such as an email.

Work Protocol

Our Work Protocol ensure that JVS remains a professional, productive, and safe environment for both clients and staff. This information is intended to provide an overview of expected behavior at JVS facilities or JVS sponsored events. It also services as a useful resource that helps all clients and staff feel productive and safe.

We expect that JVS clients and JVS team members adhere to the following behaviors:

1. Attendance: Be on time for scheduled appointments and/or classes. Clients should notify staff as soon as possible if an emergency will affect attendance. While virtual, we understand you may have circumstances which don't allow you to be on video throughout the duration of the class. Please communicate this with your JVS Point Person as soon as possible so JVS is aware you are still participating, but off camera.
2. Harassment, discrimination, or bullying: Engage in behavior that supports an inclusive and diverse work environment. Do not engage in behavior that could be interpreted as harassment, discrimination, or bullying against another person for any reason, including race, color, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, national origin, ethnicity, or religion.
3. Profanity/Obscenity: Use language and gestures that promote a productive and safe environment. Do not use language, gestures, or conduct that is vulgar, profane, obscene or abusive, and possession of/viewing offensive materials.
4. Violence: Do not assault or threaten any client, staff, or visitor.
5. Participation: You are expected to participate fully in JVS services, including feedback/surveys, and maintain contact with JVS staff. Clients must agree to inform their JVS Point Person of any changes in employment status that may affect your job search, including getting a job. Due to some of the aforementioned subsidized services, you may be asked to continue to be in contact for regular follow ups at regular intervals for up to one year after you have completed the program.
6. Disruption: Act in compliance with the directions of JVS staff who are acting in the performance of their duties, including not interrupting or interfering with the orderly conduct of JVS activities.
7. Attire/Grooming: Wear attire and display grooming that encourages learning, and that promotes safety, health, and acceptable standards of social conduct in a learning or workspace.
8. Food/Beverages: If your class takes place in person, please do not eat or drink when using a borrowed JVS laptop. If you have a severe allergy to any food, please let your Program Coordinator and in-person instructor (if applicable) know as soon as possible to avoid allergens that could cause a severe reaction.
9. The facility, equipment, and resources: Do not enter or utilize JVS facilities, supplies, equipment, including computers without authorization.
10. Property: Respect JVS property. Do not deface, damage, or steal property belonging to JVS or any other person.
11. Smoking: If your class takes place in-person, please note that smoking is not permitted inside buildings.
12. Alcohol and drugs: Please do not use, sell, distribute, or possess alcohol or drugs or attend JVS services while under the influence of alcohol or drugs. If staff suspect at any time that a client is misusing alcohol or other substances, staff will discuss options with clients including referral to treatment services, conferences with staff from referring agencies, and up to suspension of JVS activities
13. Weapons/Explosives/Fireworks: To maintain a safe and professional work environment, we ask you do not possess, distribute, handle, or use a weapon or any object, including explosives and fireworks in-person or virtually while on camera.

Suspension and Dismissal Policy

Violation of any part of the JVS Work Protocol may result in suspension and/or dismissal from services.

If you fail to follow JVS's Work Protocol, a JVS Staff Member will schedule a meeting to review your behavior or lack of participation. Issues that cannot be resolved at this level may be referred to the appropriate JVS Staff Member. If the behavior continues, a three-way meeting will be scheduled between you, the Staff Member, and the Program Manager or Program Director. Depending on the severity of the offense, the Director of Client Services and/or their designees may determine that a suspension or dismissal from services is in order. While this is a suggested guideline to provide feedback, we reserve the right to terminate services at any time for any reason.

In the case of suspensions or dismissal from services, you must meet with Dylan Ruggles, the Director of Client Services, and/or their designee to determine if reinstatement of JVS services is appropriate.

If you disagree with any disciplinary action, you may file a grievance with Dylan Ruggles, the Director of Client Services.

When registering for a service, you will be given the opportunity to request an accommodation to meet your needs. If during your time working with JVS you realize you require a reasonable accommodation, please ask JVS Point Person. JVS strives to make our services as accessible as possible.

Some common requests include, but are not limited to:

- Large print documents (including this Handbook)
- When in-person, sitting closer to the instructor
- Dragon Naturally Speaking software
- Zoom Text software
- Closed captioning
- Sign Language Video Relay Service (VRS)

Service animals are welcome at JVS's facilities. You will be asked to confirm that your animal is a service animal.

We ask that everyone with a service animal follow these guidelines:

- Bring your service animal on a leash or in a container.
- Keep birds, reptiles, amphibians, and rodents in an enclosed carrier/container.
- Keep your animal at your feet, or on your lap. Your service animal may not sit on JVS furniture.
- Ensure that your service animal is not aggressive toward people or other animals.

While service animals are welcome at JVS, you are responsible for the care and supervision, including any damage or soiling caused by your service animal.

Health and Safety Protocol

Safety Drills

JVS is serious about safety. Periodically, we conduct safety drills to make sure our staff and our clients know how to react and stay safe in an emergency. Each year we practice fire drills, earthquake drills, utility failures, bomb threats, hostage situation drills, and medical emergencies. If a drill takes place while you are at JVS, please follow the directions of JVS staff. The drills are important, and we want you to take them seriously.

Safety and First Aid Training

Safety training is mandatory for JVS staff members, and many members are certified in First Aid and CPR. They can assist you if you have an accident or incident that may need medical attention. Please follow the staff person's instructions, and above all, stay calm in an emergency. JVS staff will get the help you need.

Bringing Children to JVS

Children should not be brought to JVS facilities in place of child care. Upon occasion, extenuating circumstances may require that you bring a child or children with you to an in-person meeting or class. Upon such occasions, and with the advance permission of JVS management, children may be brought to JVS facilities.

JVS values family life and welcomes children and other family members to attend special events such as graduations and celebrations. Children must remain under your direct supervision as the parent/guardian.

All visitors, including children, are required to abide by our Work Protocol at all times.

Code of Ethics

JVS's Code of Ethics serves as our expectation for the treatment of persons served and states that all staff, board members, and volunteers will:

- Strive to provide the highest level of quality services.
- Treat all clients with respect and dignity and respect their legal rights.
- Model professionalism and work ethic.
- Maintain professional boundaries with the persons served.
- Avoid any conflict of interest in service delivery.

Details for how these principles are implemented are detailed throughout this handbook. If you would like to see the complete Code of Ethics, please contact Dylan Ruggles, the Director of Client Services, at 415-782-6235 or via e-mail at druggles@jvs.org.

Gifts and Gratitude

In general, employees may not accept or give gifts to or from clients, clients' family members, vendors, suppliers, or other persons doing business with the agency.

The best "Thank you!" you can give us is by leaving a review on Yelp and referring your friends and family members to us. If you would like to purchase a gift, we ask you make a gift in the form of a donation or by purchasing a ticket to our annual luncheon Strictly Business. To learn more about Strictly Business, you can visit this webpage: <https://www.jvs.org/strictly-business/>.

Client Input Policy

At JVS, clients shape the services and programs offered and one way we do this is through input and feedback. I may be asked by JVS Staff to participate in interviews to find out my opinions about JVS services, and will also be asked to complete Client Satisfaction Surveys at intervals during my participation in JVS services.

I understand my feedback during interviews and surveys is completely anonymous and will be used for program planning purposes only.

I can also speak to Dylan Ruggles, the Director of Client Services, at 415-782-6235 or via e-mail at druggles@jvs.org at any time if I would like to discuss my experience with JVS services.

My feedback provides invaluable insight for JVS to:

- Learn more about how JVS programs could be improved.
- Find out how to best support me and future clients.
- Identify opportunities to build on my JVS experience.
- Gather data about JVS's impact and use it to improve client experience.

I understand/ agree to the following:

- My participation in these interviews is confidential and what I say or write will not be attached to my name or any other personal identifier without my written consent.
- To respond to JVS's asks for feedback.
- This ask will come from a JVS Staff Member whom I may or may not know.
- The ask for feedback may come in the form of email, text, or a phone call.
- To update my contact information with JVS staff members as soon as possible if it changes so JVS can easily reach me.
- The asks for feedback can happen while in program and within seven years after the program ends.
- While I am giving feedback, I can skip questions or choose to end the interview, survey, or focus group at any time.
- I can opt-out of giving feedback at any time by informing a member of JVS staff in writing.
- Opting out of or discontinuing giving feedback does not make me ineligible for JVS programs and will not affect the services I receive from JVS.
- I understand that JVS may reach out to other gather verifications of employment and this is as important as providing feedback. I agree to send employment verifications in a timely manner back to JVS Staff Members.

If I have any questions and comments, I will reach out to my JVS point person.

It is against the law for JVS, as a recipient of Federal Financial assistance, to discriminate on the following bases:

- Against any individual in the United States, on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, political affiliation or belief; and
- Against any beneficiary of programs financially assisted under Title I of the Workforce Innovation Opportunity Act (WIOA) on the basis of the beneficiary's citizenship/ status as a lawfully admitted immigrant authorized to work in the United States, or his or her participation in any WIOA Title 1- financially assisted program or activity.

The recipient must not discriminate in any of the following areas:

- Deciding who will be admitted, or have access, to any WIOA Title 1-financially assisted program or activity;
- Providing opportunities in, or treating any person with regard to, such a program or activity; or
- Making employment decisions in the administration of, or in connection with, such a program or activity.

What to Do If You Believed You Have Experienced Discrimination:

If you think that you have been subjected to discrimination under a WIOA Title 1-financially assisted program or activity, you may file a complaint within 180 days from the date of the alleged violation with either:

The recipient's Equal Opportunity Officer OR
Director of Client Services
Jewish Vocational Service
225 Bush Street, Suite 400
San Francisco, CA 94104

If you file your complaint with the recipient, you must wait either until the recipient issues a written Notice of Final Action or until 90 days have passed (whichever is sooner), before filing with the Civil Rights Center (CRC) (see address above).

If the recipient does not give you a written Notice of Final Action within 90 days of the day on which you filed your complaint, you do not have to wait for the recipient to issue that Notice before filing a complaint with CRC. However, you must file your CRC complaint within 30 days of the 90-day deadline (in other words, within 120 days after the day on which you filed your complaint with the recipient).

If the recipient does give you a written Notice of Final Action on your complaint, but you are dissatisfied with the decision or resolution, you may file a complaint with CRC. You must file your complaint within 30 days of the date on which you received the Notice of Final Action.

Grievance Procedure

We expect any problem or misunderstanding can be effectively resolved in a timely manner by discussing it with the Staff Member you are working with. It is your responsibility to immediately inform your instructor, JVS Point Person, or another Staff Member if you are having a problem or need to share a concern.

In the event that you and the JVS Staff Member cannot agree on a solution to a specific problem or issue, you should request to meet with the JVS Staff Member's immediate supervisor. Following your request, the immediate supervisor will contact you within 10 working days to schedule a meeting. As a client, you may request the attendance of another person at the meeting, such as a case manager, Department of Rehabilitation counselor, or an advocate of your choice.

If no satisfactory solution is reached between you and the supervisor, please direct your grievance to Dylan Ruggles, the Director of Client Services. You have up to one year to file a formal grievance from the date a violation took place. Within 30-days of the submission of your formal complaint, JVS will schedule a meeting on the matter, and you will receive 10-days advanced written/emailed notice of the meeting date and time.

The grievance should be documented in writing and addressed to:

Dylan Ruggles, Director of Client Services
Jewish Vocational Services
225 Bush Street, Suite 400
San Francisco, CA 94104

If you prefer to send an email to file a grievance, you can email Dylan Ruggles, Director of Client Services, at druggles@jvs.org. You can also file a grievance through our website at: <https://forms.office.com/r/sjzsgq5dSh>.

Your grievance should include, at minimum, your name, the approximate date of which the incident occurred, details of the incident, and what efforts have already been taken to resolve the incident, if anything.

Following the meeting, Dylan Ruggles, the Director of Client Services, or their designee will respond with a written or emailed decision to your grievance within 60-days of the original submission of your formal complaint.

If no satisfactory solution is reached between you and JVS, you may have the opportunity to direct your grievance to a third party. JVS staff will assist you in identifying the appropriate resource to whom your grievance should be directed. If you are unsure who to reach out to, contact the Director of Client Services at druggles@jvs.org.

If at any time you feel your actions and/or feedback have resulted in retaliatory actions or increased barriers to service, please notify Dylan Ruggles, the Director of Client Services, immediately in writing or email.
